

Legal And Medical Investments Bridgend

since patients do not necessarily possess training to prescribe or dispense medications, the law holds them criminally responsible for providing their prescription medication to someone else legal and medical investments

legal and medical investments bridgend