

Pariet Medscape

when they reach dadaab, they reach a country where an estimated five million people are facing starvation because of drought, according to abbas gullet, the secretary general of the kenyan red cross pariet medscape